CLARYVILLE — In response to the community's growing need for quality, affordable daycare providers, Frost Valley YMCA opened Little Rainbows Daycare to serve Frost Valley staff members and their families, and the local community. Little Rainbows is a fully licensed daycare through the New York State Office of Children and Family Services, serving infants through pre-K. Currently only a few spots remain, and the program is now more affordable for qualifying families.

Little Rainbows is now accepting daycare subsidy as one of its tuition payment options. If parents interested in enrolling their child are currently receiving a subsidy from the county they live in, they simply need to provide a copy of the acceptance letter from the Department of Social Services. Families who wish to receive a subsidy but are not currently receiving one, can apply through the Sullivan County Childcare Council by calling (845) 292-7166 or through the Ulster County Childcare Council by calling (845) 331-5197.

Located in Frost Valley's newly renovated cottage on Frost Valley Road in Claryville, Little Rainbows is open from 7:30 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Three- and five-day programs are available with rates starting as low as $117 for three days a week. Healthy meals and snacks are included in the tuition.

Little Rainbows' staff members have college degrees in early childhood development. Little Rainbows provides a developmentally appropriate, educational, and values-driven curriculum for children of varying ages and skill levels.

The daycare staff is M.A.T. Certified to administer both over-the-counter and prescription medications with a physician's instructions. There is also medical staff on site. The health and safety of the children are a priority at Little Rainbows daycare.

For more information visit frostvalley.org/daycare, call Angel Morton, Little Rainbows Child Care Administrator at (845) 985-7343, or email amorton@frostvalley.org. Interested parents are urged to register right away since there are only a few spots remaining.

Interviews are available upon request. Please contact Chief Marketing Officer Amanda Hinski at AHinski@FrostValley.org
